

NEW-YORK DAILY TRIBUNE, MONDAY, FEBRUARY 2, 1867.

Wm. Co., but this resolution hinders the commencement of a new era.

CONTRIBUTING THE PASSENGER.—Two carmen named Wm. Leon and Peter Dein were arrested on Saturday night at the station house at the Farley Ferry, having previously made a mous on the boat. When remonstrated with by Officer McCannally, beat him badly and tore on his coat. They were subsequently secured by Officers Van Keuren, Hall and Kelly, and locked up in jail.

SLEDDING ACCIDENT.—A boy named McCauley was run over by a sled driven down the steep hill at Montague Ferry by another boy on Friday evening, and was so severely injured that it was feared he would be crippled for life. A hundred boys were engaged in the sport of sledding at the time, as well as they secured the safety of the accident.

CONTENT OF COURT.—On Saturday an action for rent was brought before Justice John C. Darrow, who granted, whereupon Dr. Van Dusen, who gave written expression to the opinion that he did not think justice could be obtained in that Court, and he should take him elsewhere. The Justice thereupon pronounced him guilty of malice, and fined him $5, which he paid in preference to going to jail.
